The Willamette Valley's 2020 growing season presented several significant challenges. Cool, wet weather in June—at bloom—created difficult fruitset conditions, resulting in lower harvest yields. Then, smoke from regional wildfires in September threatened the integrity of the entire crop. Fortunately, the warm, dry summer and fall weather ripened the fruit beautifully. The resulting wines are well-rounded with fruit-driven flavors and balanced acidity.

In 2020 we sourced heritage clone Wadenswil from a 1.4-acre block in the prestigious Zenith Vineyard in Salem, Oregon. Planted in 2008, the far-west block encompasses Chehulpum Silt Loam on a gentle slope. The Pommard came from our estate vineyard in the Chehalem Mountains AVA, planted at 550 feet in elevation on volcanic Jory soil that accentuates brighter fruit flavors. The 2020 Candide aged for 12 months in French oak. This wine showcases the richer mouthfeel and spicier characteristics of Wadenswil, made more pronounced by its source in the Eola-Amity Hills AVA.

BELLS UP
WINERY

Micro-boutique, un-domaine and always open by appointment, Bells Up composes Oregon Pinot Noir, Rosé, Pinot Blanc, Seyval Blanc, Syrah and Cabernet Sauvignon from our estate vineyard and micro-sites in the Willamette Valley and Eastern Oregon. Established in 2013, our first wines were released Memorial Day 2015. We make ~600 cases annually.

The 9-acre estate in the Chehalem Mountains AVA is being planted in phases. Three acres of Pommard and Clone 667 were planted spring 2014 with 1,000 plants in these two blocks field grafted to Clones 115 and 777 in Spring 2021; the Willamette Valley's first planting of a 0.5-acre of Seyval Blanc in spring 2015; and 2.5 acres of Wadenswil, 113 and 943 planted in spring 2016. The first estate harvest was fall 2017. In fall 2020 and 2021 the Seyval Blanc block was expanded to meet demand. An obscure Northern Italian varietal was planted in fall 2020 in a new 0.5-acre block. Pinot Blanc (0.75-acre) was planted in fall 2021.

The name "Bells Up" refers to a dramatic moment in a classical music score instructing French horn players to raise their instruments' bells and project sound with maximum intensity. Winemaker and owner Dave Specter—a French horn player for 20+ years—calls the winery his "Bells Up" moment.
